RV DERBY

Driver Requirements: All drivers must be at least eighteen (16) years of age with valid proof of license. Attendance at pre race drivers meeting is mandatory. Race Transponder is MANDATORY. If you need to rent one, contact track for more info (email:rules@dirtoval66.com) Full face helmet, seat belt and long sleeve pants and shirt are mandatory. A fire suit is recommended but not mandatory. Driver must fill out all proper paperwork and registration on event day.

Vehicle Type

- This class is strictly for Class C Recreational Vehicle Motorhomes – the boxy RVs built on a van or truck chassis with the over-cab bed.
- No Class A “bus-style” rigs and no Class B camper vans.
- All RVs must still meet the basic safety inspection before competition.
- NO Box Trucks or Mini Vans

Safety Rules

- Seatbelts, long sleeves, and full face helmets are non-negotiable.
- RVs must stop, steer, and not spill fuel all over the track.
- No propane tanks. Any tank must be removed.
- No passengers. The dog, the in-laws, and the kids stay home.
- Red flag = stop now. Yellow flag = slow it down. Safety crews get the right of way.

Building & Vehicle Prep

- All glass (except windshield) removed or taped up.
- Strip or secure the insides. Couches, fridges, and flat-screens must be bolted down or gone.
- Doors must be chained, welded, or locked shut.
- Remove ladders, awnings, and roof racks – this isn't a campsite 😊
- Tires must be safe and inflated. No tractor treads or spikes.
- Your number must be big, bold, and visible on both sides and the roof.
- No crazy reinforcements. If you turn your RV into a tank, you're going home early.

On-Track Conduct

1. No driver's door hits.
2. Speeds stay reasonable. These beasts weren't meant for NASCAR.
3. Keep moving – no sandbagging, no camping in the infield. 😊
4. Respect the officials, the flaggers, the safety team.

County Fair Style Derby. Last man standing WINS!

$1500 to WIN, $100 to start! $500 to start if you leave your RV.
